Learning Together Meals in the Hebrew Scriptures	Learning Together Meals in New Testament	Learning Together Communion Practice and Theology
Watch Watch the two videos below, summarize what you learned (in at least 10 sentences/5 for each). The Old Testament The New Testament	Serve Help set up & clean up Communion OR help serve as a Communion Assistant at church. Write at least a 6 sentence reflection of what you feel/see/experience when doing this.	Research Do a little research about the liturgical year and church holidays, seasons and colors. Create some artwork to represent this or to teach someone else about it.
Create Either on a computer or freehand, create a biblical timeline with the characters & events listed on the next page. You can use Biblical timelines located in your Bible or do your own research. Put them in order and, if possible, include the dates that they lived.	Catechism There are 4 sections in Luther's Small Catechism about Communion. Read all 4 sections and summarize each one.	Reflect Pick hymns or songs from the Holy Communion section of our hymnals and write a short reflection about it (at least 6 sentences). What imagery is used? What Bible stories/passages/themes are conveyed in each song? When would it be good to sing this song? Is there a story about when or how this hymn/song was written?
Reflect Write 3 descriptions of different special meals you celebrate with your family or friends so that the reader might guess what the occasion is. Try not to use specific words like "birthday cake" that give away too easily what you are describing.	Read Read "A Place for You" by Daniel Erlander. Write a review of the book that would go on a library or book-selling website for potential readers.	Draw Design a colorful chalice, paten, ciborium and flagon that could be used for holding the communion elements in your congregation. Write a description of the colors and designs you chose and why you chose them.

Remember to send in your assignments as a Google doc or Google file with permission to edit to Pastor Michelle Sevig msevig@htchicago.org. This includes anything written or drawn! Please take a clear picture if it is an illustration or other item that cannot be created digitally.
